
From: Kurt Spachek [mailto:pilsen@tctelco.net]

Sent: Tuesday, June 06, 2006 8:30 AM

To: ChangeInControl

Subject: Home Depot

I am writing in opposition to the application from Home Depot to acquire EnerBank, ILC. The line between banking and commerce should not be crossed. If Home Depot were allowed to make loans for home improvement projects, what would stop them from expanding into other areas? There are sufficient institutions competing in the market without allowing Home Depot to become a "bank"

Sincerely,

Kurt D. Spachek
President
Pilsen State Bank